Residential and Day Services Enrollment Requirements

The Kansas Medical Assistance Program (KMAP) has made changes to the medical group practice Provider Enrollment requirements. However, residential and day services providers are exempt from this requirement.

Residential and day services, including individual apartments owned by an agency or rented by individuals receiving services, are considered places of service. Providers are not required to enroll each of these locations.